An initiative of the Kentucky Council on Postsecondary Education, the Kentucky Virtual Library (KYVL) brings together resources from top information providers for citizens of the Commonwealth of Kentucky. Partner institutions include colleges and universities, schools, public libraries and other libraries. Additional support comes from the Kentucky Department for Libraries and Archives. Login information is available from participating libraries. For more information, visit KYVL.org.

A suite of resources, including:
- Annals of American History
- Britannica Academic Edition
- Britannica Library
- Britannica School
- Britannica Spanish Reference Center

Resources too numerous to list. Highlights include:
- Academic Search Complete
- Business Source Premier
- CINAHL with Full Text
- PsycINFO
- Small Business Reference Center

Achieve career and educational goals with help from:
- Adult Core Skills
- Career Preparation
- College Students
- College Admissions Test Prep
- Computer Skills Center
- GED Test Prep Center
- School Center

Databases include:
- Alt-Press Watch
- Career & Technical Education
Encyclopedia with images, videos and more.

The world's largest library catalog, searchable through FirstSearch and WorldCat Discovery.

A resource with viewpoints, infographics, articles and more to support argumentative or position papers.

Readers’ Advisory resources to find fiction for all ages and interests.

Everything available via Kentucky Virtual Library is listed at KYVL.org/az.php